The farmer is planting seeds.

Vegetables are starting to grow.

The vegetables are growing well. The farmer is happy.

The next day.

The carrots and lettuce have gone! The farmer is shocked.

The next day.

The onions and radishes have gone! The farmer is confused.

The next day.

The corn and potatoes have gone! The farmer is angry.

The next day.

The pumpkin has gone!
The farmer is furious.

That night.

The farmer waits behind a rock.

A rabbit hops over to the cabbage.

The farmer catches the rabbit in his net.

Now the rabbit is the farmer's pet. The farmer and the rabbit are happy.
