Suggestions for the end of your lessons:

The end of the lesson gives the teacher the opportunity to assign homework and do a quick review. Students can say goodbye in a positive atmosphere and therefore look forward to their next lesson.

These activities can be done in the following order at the end of your lesson:

1. Assign homework

Each week give out a homework worksheet for your students to take home. Hold up the homework worksheet and model how to do it. Give out the worksheets and say, "Put your homework in your bags" and help them to do so - this is important as they will probably want to start colouring them right away.

Note: If possible, encourage the parents to help out as much as possible with their child's homework - it is a great way to have your students practice the target language outside of class.

2. Say goodbye to glove puppet

Glove puppet. Take out the bag again and get everyone to wake up the glove puppet by shouting its name into the bag (e.g. "Cookie Monster!"). Bring out the puppet and go through the same routine as in the warm up - go to each student and say hello, ask their name and the say goodbye / see you. Then put the puppet back in the bag (back to sleep).

3. Sing "The goodbye song" or a review song

"The goodbye song" is a good way to sign off the class. Sit together in a circle and sing and clap along. You can also use a different song, especially if your students love a particular song.

Lyrics for "The goodbye song"	Gestures for "The goodbye song"
Goodbye, goodbye, See you again. Goodbye, goodbye, See you again. It's time to go, It's time to go, It's time to go, See you next time. Goodbye, goodbye, See you again. It's time to go, See you next time. 	These are quite straight forward. First time you play the song do the gestures and encourage everyone to do them with you. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wave as you sing the "Goodbye, goodbye" parts. • Hold your hand above your eyes (as you would when you are looking into the distance and keeping the sun out of your eyes) and look at another student as you sing "See you again". • Tap watch (or imaginary watch) and then point to the door as you sing "It's time to go". • Point towards another student as you sing "See you next time".

4. Do "Quick check"

Time to leave the class. Make sure everything is put away and the students have gathered their belongings. Have them line up at the door and place yourself between the door and the students. For each student check one new word or phrase, for example:

- hold up an object or flashcard (such as a colour or fruit) and ask, "What's this?"
- say an action for the student to do (e.g. "Roar like a lion", "Jump 5 times", etc.)
- ask a question from the lesson (e.g. "How old are you?", "Do you like bananas?", "Can you play chess?", etc.).
- for very young students you can hold up one of the worksheets you did in the lesson and ask them to touch an object (e.g. "Touch the melon").

When they give you the correct answer say goodbye and let them leave. If their answer is wrong, have them go back to the end of the line - they will have to try again once they reach the front!
